Hazard Description

Camping can be a vigorous, energetic experience. Activities can include hiking, running and exploring along bush trails, water sports, games of strength, field and group games, use of playground equipment. However, the possibility exists that injuries and/or loss may occur. They could include but would not be limited to: minor cuts and abrasions, sprained joints, bee-stings, major cuts, concussions, broken bones, even death. With many children and youth together, it is also possible for certain illnesses to transfer from one camper to another. Illnesses can range from colds and flu to strep throat and chicken pox or other contagious illnesses. The Hardisty Lake Camp Staff will make the safety and well-being of each camp and camper of utmost priority.

Permissions, Waiver, and Indemnity

I, the undersigned, hereby waive and release Hardisty Lake United Church Camp, the United Church of Canada and the Alberta Camping Association, their servants, agents and volunteers and any medical or health professional rendering emergency assistance from all claims and costs of any kind or nature arising either directly or indirectly from the participant engaging or participating in any activities associated with the camp, in accordance with the information provided, including, but not restricted to, all claims for personal injury to the participants or his/her property.

I, the undersigned, hereby give the Hardisty Lake United Church Camp permission to use pictures/videos being taken during camp week for promotional purposes.
